

West Hollywood's Hottest Reservations

The Hottest Dining Reservations as of January 2025 from Visit West Hollywood

West Hollywood has long been synonymous with culinary excellence, drawing food enthusiasts from around the globe to its vibrant streets. The latest dining sensations redefine this tradition, showcasing why these compact 1.9 square miles continue to thrive as a premier culinary destination. From acclaimed Michelin-rated icons that have set the standard for gourmet dining to enticing newcomers generating buzz with their innovative concepts, West Hollywood continues to lead the charge in pushing the boundaries of flavor, creativity, and culinary experience in the heart of L.A.

Here's a taste of West Hollywood's Hottest Reservations:

- Stella: Where rare, handmade pasta offerings are redefining Italian cuisine.
- Somni: A Spanish tasting menu that offers an artistic experience on every plate.
- Uchi: Speciality menu items highlight Uchi's unique flair.
- Chez Mia: Elevated French fare that embodies chic indulgence.
- Roosterfish— Venice Beach's iconic gay bar reborn on Santa Monica Blvd, serving Italian-American dishes and hosting brunch and music nights.
- Lucky Tiki—A revived historic tiki bar bringing its iconic charm to West Hollywood.
- CouCou—Venice Beach's second location now open in the Heart of LA, offering a relaxed yet refined approach to French cuisine.
- Amour —A chic French dining spot in the Design District, with recently opened experience in sister venue, Puzzle..
- 33 Taps—Your new go-to neighborhood sports bar with handcrafted bites, 360° TV views, and, of course, 33 taps.
- Andy's - Owned by singer Anderson .Paak, this live music venue serves up great vibes, tasty drinks, and occasional celebrity appearances from the likes of Bruno Mars.
- Something About Her - Founded by best friends Katie and Ariana, this dreamy sandwich shop is a sanctuary of flavor, femininity, and connection.
- Ladyhawk- A vibrant tribute to modern Eastern Mediterranean cuisine where bold flavors and Cali-cool vibes come together.

This March 7th-31st, Eat+Drink West Hollywood will spotlight WeHo's vibrant culinary scene while supporting small businesses and raising funds for Los Angeles fire victims. The event will feature exclusive menus, exciting collaborations, and the unmissable flavors that make West Hollywood a true culinary and cocktail mecca.