June 1, 2026: In West Hollywood, rooftop culture is more than a golden-hour ritual; it's a lifestyle. Positioned at the base of the Hollywood Hills, West Hollywood pairs year-round sunshine with sweeping skyline views and an unmistakably elevated social scene - the perfect setting for rooftop-hopping from day to night.

From long-standing icons to exciting new openings, West Hollywood continues to raise the bar with its elevated experiences that blend creativity, glamour and an unmistakable energy. Whether the mood calls for a restorative rooftop yoga session, a sunny brunch overlooking the skyline, design-forward dining under the stars, skyline cocktails, celebrity spotting, and even racquet sports above the city streets - WeHo's rooftops deliver something distinctive all day, every day.

West Hollywood rooftops in the spotlight:

- NEW: Sushi Samba West Hollywood: One of the city's hottest new openings in all of LA, Sushi Samba brings its signature Japanese, Brazilian and Peruvian fusion to a rooftop destination complete with live entertainment and Hollywood Hills views. The space is a first for LA, channeling the signature electric energy of Rio nightlife they are known for, with bold interiors, samba-inspired rhythms and immersive cocktail experiences. It's quickly becoming one of West Hollywood's most talked-about destinations for elevated sunset dining and late-night celebrations.
- NEW: White Rabbit Sky Lounge: Formerly Skybar, this legendary rooftop nightlife spot continues to deliver poolside DJ sets, energetic crowds and glittering city vistas from White Rabbit Sky Lounge at The Valorian (formerly Mondrian West Hollywood). Wellness now joins the rooftop mix too, with Fit Girl Club LA hosting Saturday morning yoga sessions at 10am on the iconic roof deck, where guests flow through an invigorating class overlooking the WeHo skyline before cocktails begin pouring from noon.

- NEW: PUBLIC Hotel West Hollywood: There's a new hotel rooftop in town! PUBLIC Hotel will officially open on July 15, bringing Ian Schrager's blend of simplicity and luxury to LA, with 75 percent of its public space situated outdoors for a casually sophisticated feel. The rooftop will allow guests to feel they're 'in the Sunset Strip' rather than on top of it.
- Reality TV comes to life at Catch LA: An iconic see-and-be-seen rooftop where seafood, craft cocktails and panoramic city views meet celebrity energy, Catch LA's recently updated outdoor patio feels like a hidden garden floating above the city. In season 13 of Keeping Up With the Kardashians, Kendall Jenner celebrated her 21st birthday here with a gaggle of celebrity guests that included Hailey Bieber, mom Kris and sisters Kim, Kourtney, Khloe and Kylie.

- Right to the top, for yoga and tarot: Whimsical and bohemian, Petit Ermitage hotel is a hidden oasis combining candlelit corners, a butterfly sanctuary and old-world glamour. It's filled with eclectic art, velvet furnishings, lush greenery with kumquat trees, feeling more like an intimate private festival than a hotel rooftop. Guests can head to the pool deck for a laid-back brunch atmosphere, choosing to kickstart their day with morning yoga, or close their day with rooftop tarot readings. The rooftop Belly Room offers intimate

- Rooftop glamour and penthouse style by Vivienne Westwood: Perched in the hills just steps from the legendary Sunset Strip, the award-winning The London West Hollywood is a fusion of its namesake cities - where timeless luxury meets rooftop glamour. The pool deck is a classic WeHo sun-soaked escape, pairing panoramic skyline views with private cabanas and relaxed poolside dining. The hotel is also home to the largest penthouse in Los Angeles with bold, custom interiors personally appointed by trailblazing international designer Vivienne Westwood.
- Perched atop an eco-luxury retreat: Nestled at the base of the Hollywood Hills, guests slip through the greenery-laden patio of 1 Hotel West Hollywood to one of LA's most enchanting perches. Harriet's Rooftop feels suspended above the energy of Sunset Strip, with its photogenic pinstriped sofas, fringed umbrellas and golden-hour cocktails creating a distinctly cinematic atmosphere. Wellness at the signature Bamford Spa, rooftop gym and outdoor pool provide a vantage point and wellness combo like no other.

- From the Hollywood Hills to the Pacific at The Roof: Legendary designer, Ian Schrager, pulled out all the stops for this sophisticated addition to the West Hollywood hotelscape. The Roof at The West Hollywood EDITION resembles a sunken living room overlooking the twinkling magic of the Hollywood Hills at night, and greater Los Angeles all the way to the ocean by day.
- Calling Elvis! A legendary establishment: The Formosa Café was once frequented by the likes of Frank Sinatra, Humphrey Bogart, James Dean, Elvis Presley and John Wayne, who was once caught making scrambled eggs in the café's kitchen after a late night of debauchery. The Formosa has undergone several renovations over the years, including the addition of a fabulous rooftop bar. Enjoy sticky spare ribs, fluffy fried rice and other Chinese-American classics beneath the dangling lanterns of the outdoor bar. A rotating series of outdoor movies invigorate their open air lounge.
- Book a game of rooftop pickleball: West Hollywood's playful side comes alive at Kimpton La Peer Hotel's Center Court, the rooftop pickleball experience for a match alongside skyline views, handcrafted cocktails and weekend "Disco Court" sessions with DJs and sunset energy. Equal parts wellness, sport and social scene, it reflects the city's growing appetite for experiential lifestyle offerings. Guests can move seamlessly from a morning match to poolside lounging or rooftop drinks, all in true laid-back WeHo style.

- Racquet retreat at the Montrose and Le Parc: West Hollywood loves its racquet sports! State of the art courts are found atop the Montrose and Le Parc at Melrose hotels. Whether guests are perfecting their pickleball or tennis serve, enjoying a casual match at sunset or settling in for cocktails and bites post-game, the experience captures WeHo's signature mix of wellness, social connection and laid-back luxury.
- Pre-show drinks at The Sun Rose's rooftop: This stylish venue blends live music heritage with elevated dining and incredible views across the Sunset Strip. Guests can take a dip in the rooftop pool and enjoy a sunset cocktail, before later enjoying the night's entertainment downstairs at The Sun Rose's intimate live music venue, known for surprise performances and curated artist line-ups. The atmosphere strikes a balance between classic Hollywood glamour and contemporary West Hollywood cool, making it a standout addition to the city's rooftop scene.

- Rooftop brunch at a West Hollywood institution: With a golden Hollywood history, the rooftop pool at Sunset Tower Hotel feels tranquil, glamorous and effortlessly timeless, with sweeping city views stretching out beyond the palms. In true WeHo fashion, street level here feels like a rooftop, with Sunset Tower nestled into the base of the Hollywood Hills above the Sunset Strip. The poolside terrace is open for breakfast, lunch and afternoon bites, making it an idyllic setting for brunch to lunch above the Sunset Strip. As day melts into evening, guests can settle into the sophisticated allure of Tower Bar's Terrace Room, where expertly crafted cocktails, old-world glamour and glittering skyline views create one of West Hollywood's most iconic sunset moments.
- Plenty of choice, for a pool-side position: West Hollywood has a plethora of sun-drenched rooftop pools that float high above the LA skyline. Whether guests want to unwind in quiet luxury, pulse with world-class DJs, all while enjoying a perfectly poured drink over some of the best people-watching in the city, choose from the hottest rooftop pools in West Hollywood.
